NSS UNIT-202

Unit organized a painting exhibition named 'HUES' at MANN Art café, Chalappuram Calicut on 14/10/19. It has been arranged as a collaborative work of both SIAS NSS Unit and MHAT (Mental Health Action Trust) Calicut . The students of SIAS had shown something unusual and wonderful drawings through their exhibition named 'HUES'. As the name, the exhibition shows us the flow and pattern of different accepts of life like affection, freedom, love, sorrow, nature and many more. The artists also spoke about social issues like problems of Kashmir and the rule of a fascist Govt and the effect of global warming. There were stream arts like abstract, modern art, zentangle, doodle art, calligraphy, portrait and many types of paintings. The students have more aesthetic value and they had shown it in unique and unconditional way. 21 quintessential artists from SIAS has displayed their art works in the HUES exhibition.

SIAS Chief Operating Officer Col. Nisar Ahamed Seethi inaugurated this Exhibition. Friends of MHAT representatives Muhsina, Rabaneesh, and Athiya interacted with NSS volunteers and artists. That made the students very serious in mental health issues. This exhibition will over on Nov.14th 2019.
