Introduction

In today's world, education has become one of the most essential and expensive assets. Most of the high school pass outs look for financial assistance to pursue the career of their dreams. In such a scenario, scholarships come up as the most desired form of financial aid. This is because, unlike educational loans, scholarships don't need to be repaid. A deserved student can get scholarships on merit basis. This makes scholarships prestigious and also pays for one's degree. Students should definitely apply for scholarships because it comes with numerous benefits.

Benefits of Scholarships

- Saves students from debt.
- Focus on the actual goals
- Infuse self-pride & honour
- Enhance resume
- Gives a career advantage

The Social Advancement Foundation of India (SAFI) is constituted by educationists, philanthropists and social engineers, with the objective of empowering and uplifting socially and economically backward section. SAFI Institute of Advanced Study (SIAS), the academic wing of SAFI is particularly committed to serve the economically weak, socially underprivileged and needy students. The Institute is located in a socially and educationally backward region of the Malappuram District, Kerala. The institute has been providing financial assistance to the meritorious as well as needy students in the form of Scholarships and Freeships.

Procedure for the Award of Scholarship by the Management

- Scholarships are awarded to students every year by the Management based on Merit and means to encourage eligible students who are financially weak.

- The Institute has a Scholarship committee which comprises of Principal as chairman, a senior staff member as convener, and Administrative officer, Officer on Special Duty and a student representative as members.
- Applications are invited by the scholarship committee from the students in the beginning of every academic year to avail the scholarships.
- A personal interview of the student is conducted by the scholarship committee to verify the genuineness and eligibility of the student.
- The criteria for awarding scholarships are financial background, academic performances and conduct of the student.
- Scholarship is thus awarded to deserving students based on the interview.
- The maximum amount of scholarship a student can avail is upto Rs. 30,000/- for the entire programme.
- The eligibility of scholarship is reviewed every year.
- The scholarship will be discontinued if the students has any subsequent failure records in academics or if indulge in any in-disciplinary activities.
- The amount of Scholarship awarded differs from person to person.

Policies for the Freeship by the Management

SAFI Institute of Advanced Study is providing freeship to the students admitted to M.A. Islamic studies.

The standard procedure for providing freeship is as follows:

- The students who intend to take admission to the M.A. Islamic studies programme have to submit their application as per the prescribed format which can be downloaded from the Institute's website.
- The applicants are then scrutinized based on the performance in the Entrance examination for freeship conducted by the Institution followed by an interview with the subject experts.

- The College Council then provides a final list of recommendations and is then forwarded to the Principal.
- The final list will be approved by Principal.
